MISSION AND PURPOSES OF THE ORDER

The International Order of St. Hubertus is an ancient knightly organization of like-minded sportsmen, hunters and anglers, who enjoy the fellowship of the Order and who share the same principles regarding sportsmanlike conduct, ethical hunting and fishing, and the conservation and preservation of wildlife and its habitat all over the world. Each Ordensbrother subscribes to the following principles and acts on them individually of his own volition.

TO PROMOTE SPORTSMANLIKE CONDUCT IN HUNTING AND FISHING

TO FOSTER GOOD FELLOWSHIP AMONG SPORTSMEN FROM ALL OVER THE WORLD

TO TEACH AND PRESERVE SOUND TRADITIONAL HUNTING AND FISHING CUSTOMS

TO ENCOURAGE WILDLIFE CONSERVATION AND TO HELP PROTECT ENDANGERED SPECIES FROM EXTINCTION

TO PROMOTE THE CONCEPT OF HUNTING AND FISHING AS AN INTANGIBLE CULTURAL HERITAGE OF HUMANITY

TO ENDEAVOR TO ENSURE THAT THE ECONOMIC BENEFITS DERIVED FROM SPORTS HUNTING AND FISHING SUPPORT THE REGIONS WHERE THESE ACTIVITIES ARE CARRIED OUT

TO STRIVE TO ENHANCE RESPECT FOR RESPONSIBLE HUNTERS AND FISHERMEN

THE LEGEND OF ST. HUBERTUS AND THE HISTORY OF THE ORDER

THE INTERNATIONAL ORDER OF ST. HUBERTUS

St. Hubert was born circa A.D. 656, probably in Toulouse, the son of the Duke of Aquitaine. He was prominent in the Merovingian Court at Metz, and after the death of his wife following childbirth, was devoted to all forms of pleasure, particularly stag hunting.

According to legend, on Good Friday c. 684, as he was hunting stags in the forest of Ardennes rather than attending church services, he came upon a magnificent animal which he was intending to take until he saw that the stag had a golden cross between his horns. At that point St. Hubert had a Holy vision that he was to forsake his hedonistic ways, divest his worldly possessions and devote his life to helping the poor. After a subsequent life of piety, he became a very respected and successful Bishop. He died in A.D. 727 and his remains were interred to Amdain (now Saint-Hubert, Belgium).

St. Hubert was widely venerated during the Middle Ages and thereafter and his grave has been a pilgrimage site for 1300 years. His symbol — the stag's head and golden cross — is a familiar sight all over Europe.

In A.D. 1695, Austro-Hungarian Count Franz Anton Sporck instituted the Order of St. Hubertus to honor St. Hubert's memory and to promote responsible hunting and wildlife conservation. The Order continues to this day as the International Order of St. Hubertus. The motto of the Order is "Deum Diligite Animalia Diligentes," or "Honor God by Honoring His Creatures."

November 3rd is the Feast Day of St. Hubertus. It is celebrated each year at the Basilica where he is buried as well as throughout the sporting world in Europe. At the Basilica, the hunting horns are blown and hunters on horses with their barking dogs enter the church for a blessing. The members of the IOSH celebrate St. Hubert's Feast Day with dinners and shooting activities.

The convulsions of World Wars I and II led to the dissolution of the Order. After the Second World War, however, the Order was revived by the U.S. Ambassador to Austria and American High Commissioner, Llewellyn Thompson, along with General Mark W. Clark, U.K. Ambassador, Sir Harold Caccia, the British High Commissioner, Dr. Albert Messany of Austria and Austrian Chancellor Leopold Figl.

The current Grand Master is His Imperial and Royal Highness, Istvan Franz von Habsburg-Lothringen, Archduke of Austria and Royal Prince of Hungary.

Ranks of the International Order of St. Hubertus

Squire

This is the entry level for members of the Order. It signifies that the Squire has met all initiation requirements and has been accepted for membership in the Order. Each Squire must participate in the activities of the Order and demonstrate sincere support for the United States Chapter. The Squire may then be recommended by his sponsor to his Prior and the Grand Prior to be created a Knight.

Knight

This is the first rank of the Order. It is conveyed to a Squire in a formal investiture ceremony during which he is dubbed by the Grand Master of the Order or his designate and attired in the Knight Medal and Cape. The Knight may now be addressed as an Ordensbrother.

Knight Officer

This second-level rank is typically conveyed to a Knight who has been active in the Order through participation in events for some years after his investiture as a Knight.

Knight Commander

The Knight Commander has demonstrated leadership in the Order for several years. He has been proactive through the development of events, the execution of projects and in enlisting new members.

Knight Grand Officer

The highest rank is reserved for the leaders of the Order; typically 10% or less of Ordensbrothers attain this rank. The Knight Grand Officer demonstrates senior leadership in the Order by arranging events and originating projects, through actively enlisting new members, and through significant and productive interaction with Ordensbrothers throughout the U.S. Chapter and the world.
